FOREWORD

SHIPS, those emissaries of trade and good will, whether they be of the picturesque and lumbering type used by Columbus or resemble more nearly the dependable and efficient liners which now cleave their swift undeterred course through the waters of the seven seas, have always stirred the imagination and awakened ambition and thoughts of adventure. It is the hope of the 1933 White Heather staff, that this volume will, like ships of all ages, awaken and keep ever alive in the minds of its readers the ambition and good will so necessary for a rich and full life

That happy way about DeLanie just makes the sun shine brighter, and widens the paths into the hearts of her friends. We predict for her a future connected with "the jelly, jam and murmalade,

And quince preserves she made—"

in "Home Ec."

"To those who know thee best, no words can paint,
And those who know thee, know all words are faint."

No picture worthy words faint! So Barney, let's just mention a few things your friends will remember about you—your smile, your art, your valiant hockey playing, your uniqueness!

Sarah Everette Bedinger, A.B.

Red Springs, N. C.

E. X.

1932-'33—Hockey Team.

"Who with a natural instinct to discern
What knowledge can perform, is diligent to learn."

Diligent—Sarah does everything that way. In her studies she is a faithful, careful student, and long will her classmates remember the way she "takes that ball right down the hockey field."

"Who mixed reason with pleasure, and wisdom with mirth."

Mary Lee has a disposition like a happy lark, and knows how to make others feel that way too, but she also knows how to be pensive and solemn when occasion calls for it, though even then it's hard for her to keep her eyes from turning up at the corners.

"Good sense and good nature here-in are combined."

Dependable, capable, unconscious Katherine. You're just the one with the ability to do things and do them well. The natural, composed ability that Katherine has for playing Bach, Mozart and Beethoven will long be remembered, along with her friendly and lovable disposition.

E. X.

1930-'31—Class Hockey Team; College Chorus.
1931-'32—Class Hockey Team.
1932-'33—Prayer Band Leader.

"The sun itself has scarcely been more diligent than I."

Letha has us all beat a mile! She can make high grades, do her work, read books and have a great deal of leisure—all managed with most delightful ease. How do you do it, "Leth"?

Rodgers Dantzler, B.A.

Latta, S. C.

"Whenever fields of dreams are spread dew sweet beneath the stars
There fares this gypsy heart of me unhindered by its bars."

Whenever the present becomes prosaic and wearisome, Rodgers gets into her little dream ship and sails away to far-off countries. And then she returns to calmly walk away with the best grades in the class. Bon voyage, Rodgers.

1932-'33—Class Hockey; Monogram Club; Business Manager of Annual; Glee Club.

You are cool, like silver, and your smile—
I think the Canterbury bells are playing little tunes—"

For versatility we nominate Jo. She is athletic, she is studious, she has acted well her part whatever it chanced to be. And we know, too, that Jo has tucked away in her heart a Room of Dreams with all its tinsel glitter. May life be good to you, Jo.

Hazel Kinlaw, A.B.

1932-'33—F. M. C. A. Cabinet; Chairman Library Circle; William Bartram Scientific Society; Archery Club.

"Her heart is like a garden fair
Where many pleasant blossoms grow."

Hazel is the prodigy in our midst. She never worries over anything. And of all people, she can accomplish most with the least expenditure of energy. It's good to be around you, Hazel. Here's hoping you may always be as care-free, happy, and successful as you were in college.

Lorine Kinlaw, A.B.

E. X.

1931-'32—Archery Club.
1932-'33—Archery Club; Treasurer of Senior Class; Prayer Band Leader; Head Class Hiking Team; Pine and Thistle Staff, Type Editor.

"Let me spend my strength for others to the end."

Friendliness, a readiness to help at any time, a quick laugh, unpretentious mannerisms—all these have been packed into that little classmate of ours that we call "Kinlaw." And she's all there when it comes to athletics, too. What an archer she is, and how she can hike!

May Ola Miller, B.S.

Bartow, Fla.

E. X.

1929-'30—Fire Squad; Tennis Team.
1930-'31—Hockey Team; Treasurer of Athletic Association.

"Heave ho! my lads, the wind blows free,
A pleasant gale is an our lee."

If you want pluck, find Mac Ola. She is a jolly good sport in school, and on the athletic field, or anywhere you find her. We are expecting things of you, Ola, for we know that no one could keep your spirit down. Come on, let's go to Florida, for there goes "My Ola."

Frances Elizabeth Monroe, B.M.

Z.

1929-'30—Glee Club.
1930-'31—Glee Club.
1931-'32—Glee Club

1932-'33—Treasurer Zetesian Literary Society.

"Whose high endeavors are an inward light,
That makes the path before her always bright."

Her loyal heart, her spirit brave, her strength of purpose—these are qualities that make Katherine indispensable to Flora Macdonald, to the Class of '33—in fact to all who know her.

Katherine Boude Moore, A.B.

1932-'33—Vice-President F. M. C. A.; Senior Scribblers; Head of Hockey; Cabinet; Class Hockey; Class Basketball.

"The reason firm, the temperate will,
Endurance, foresight, strength and skill."

We have all learned to depend on Katherine for her good sound advice, her splendid judgment. She is so capable, dependable, and reliable about everything. She certainly is not afraid of hard work, and what a privilege to know her as a friend.

Margaret Louise McArthur, A.B.

Wakulla, N. C

Z.

1931-'32—Basketball Team.
1932-'33—Vice-President Day Students.

"Give me a friend with whom to spend life's golden hours in gladness."

It has been truly said that in friendship lies the superlative joy in life. And so, Margaret, if one corner in your heart is free, give that to us in remembrance of our four years together.

Jeannette MacLauchlin, B.A.

"Her voice was gentle and her eyes were kind,
No one among us but did call her friend."

Jeannette offers a friendly hand and a joking word to all she meets. With true leadership she has piloted thirty-three to victory through many a hockey and basketball season. We count you one of our most valuable members, Jeannette.

Lois Eloise McLean, A.B.

Stanford, Ky.

E. X.

1929-'30—Secretary of Class.
1930-'31—Secretary of Class; Class Hockey Team.
1931-'32—Secretary of Class; Secretary of F. M. C. A.; Member of Cabinet.
1932-'33—Vice President of Student Body; Member of Student Council; Glee Club.

"An old silver church in a forest is my love for you."

Yes, we all love Lois for she is the one to help when you need her—unselfish above all else. We'll miss you, Lois. You've just been a part of F. M. C. life to us.

Sarah Lucile McLeod, A.B.

Vass, N. C.

Z.

1930-'32—Class Hockey Team; William Bartram Scientific Society.
1932-'33—Archery Club.

"Smooth runs the water where the brook is deep."

During the four years Lucile has spent at F. M. C. she may be said to "have kept the noiseless tenor of her way." Those who know her best appreciate her splendid qualities and realize that what college has meant to her she in turn will pass on to the world.

Flora Louise McNeill, B.M.

Red Springs, N. C.

E. X.

1931-'32—Vice-President Day Students; Junior Statistics.
1932-'33—Secretary Day Students.

"I shake my hair in the wind of morning,
For the joy within me that knows no bounds."

Truly this is Louise—ever on her face you see a rapturous look—unutterable joy. And can she play a piano she's good looking too!

Frances Paisley, B.M.

McLeansville, N. C.

Z.

1929-'30—N. C. C. W.
1930-'31—College Chorus.
1931-'32—Glee Club; Class Basketball Team.
1932-'33—Glee Club.

"To be free to walk on and on over the round earth—free of little strings tying you to little things—"

Happy-go-lucky, unconventional Frances—a jolly good sport with a laugh like sparkling red wine. May she always go singing through life, on her tiptoes, a song of challenge to all of us who do let "little strings tie us to little things."

Louise Poteat, B.M.

Marion, N. C

Z.

"Her voice rang true, her eye was steady;
To help another—her hand was ready."

It would take a book to do even partial justice to Louise. She's generous, especially when we ask her to sing, and she's always ready with a cheerful word, however, hard the day. Louise, don't forget the ones you knew at F. M. C.

Frances Richmond, A.B.

Rural Retreat, Va.

E. X.

1929-'30—Randolph Macon Woman's College.
1930-'31—Hockey Team; Glee Club; Corresponding Secretary of E. X. Literary Society.

1932-'33—Treasurer F. M. C. A.; F. M. C. A. Cabinet; Class Cheer Leader; Glee Club; President Virginia Club.

"You are as bright as golden stars
When they come out to play."

The many sided lights of a prism reflect the personality of Frances. There is the sunlight —then she is Fannie, the carefree and happy; the Moonlight—thoughtful and studious. And then there is the light that we love best of all—Starlight—sparkling golden starlight. Frances, full of fun and pep, scintillating, truly a thousand girls in one.

Mary Robinson, A.B.

Kings Mountain, N. C.

Z.

1931-'32—Baseball Team; Archery Team; Varsity in Archery; Associate Editor of Pine and Thistle.
1932-'33—F. M. C. A. Cabinet.

"Joy in my work, while Time his shuttle plies;
The will to win, 'neath gray or sunny skies."

A joyous person she is, and so ready to lend a helping hand to everybody. Kindness is her very nature, and "there is nothing so kingly as kindness."

Katherine Smith, A.B.

Fayetteville, N. C.

E. X.

1929-'30—Fire Squad

"I looked hours and hours
Into long golden hours of Indian summer."

Have you noticed that haunting look in Katherine's eyes? Mysterious—fascinating—and we aren't the only ones that think so. Luck to you Katherine.

1931-'32—President of Conservatory; Treasurer of Zetesian Society.
1932-'33—President of Conservatory; Associate Editor of Pine and Thistle.

"A faithful friend is a strong defense."

If ever we are down in the dumps or in need of friendly counsel, "Margie" is the patient, everhelpful friend to whom we turn, lovable, dependable, motherly Marge.

Mary Blue Smith, B.M.

Clio, S. C.

Z.

1931-'32—Member of Cabinet; President of Glee Club; Chief Marshall; Critic Zetesian Society.
1932-'33—President of Class; Student Council; Vice-President of Conservatory; Glee Club; President of South Carolina Club.

"When she played, the atmosphere was filled with magic, and the ear caught echoes of the harps of gold."

Musical, capable, lovable, piquant Mary Blue, the life of the Senior Class. Rarely does one find in a single person a combination of such qualities for leadership together with a disposition like a mischievous nymph. What a contrast we say; but it's the sea-green eyes that cause it.

Ruby Neal Smith, B.S.

Wakulla, N. C.

E. X.

"Nor knowest thou what argument
Thy life to thy neighbor's creed has lent."

The old saying "still waters run deep" is certainly true of Ruby. Her quietness allows few people to really know her, but just ask her friends how fine she is, and what real character there is underneath her quiet ways.

Lillian Stewart, A.B.

Concord, N. C.

E. X.

1930-'31—Associate Editor of Pine and Thistle.
1931-'32—Associate Editor of Pine and Thistle; Assistant Business Manager of White Heather.
1932-'33—Editor-in-Chief of Pine and Thistle; Class Historian; Senior Scribbler.

"The educated woman's a woman with certain subtle spiritual qualities."

Lillian is the possessor of a great talent for incessant, untiring hard work and zeal, with the patience to do simple things perfectly and the skill for doing difficult things easily. One who possesses such sterling qualities as these, is in line for success.

Sarah Margaret Taylor, A.B.

Wilmington, N. C.

Z.

1931-'32—Class Treasurer.
1932-'33—Secretary F. M. C. A.; F. M. C. A. Cabinet; Critic of Zetesian Literary Society; Conference Delegate.

"A studious lass and serious you say as you pass by,
But did you stop to think about the twinkle in her eye."

Our "Taylor-maid" certainly isn't all seriousness. We all hope, Sarah, that we can get as much out of life as you do even with the teasings!

Eunice Davidson Thompson, B.S.

E. X.

1929-'30—Basketball Team; Basketball Varsity.

1932-'33—Vice-President of Athletic Association; F. M. C. A. Cabinet; Hockey Team; Manager Basketball Team.

"Better than all measures of delightful sound,
Better than all treasures that in books are found."

Such a friend as Eunc. Since our first days at F. M. C., Eunice has been a vital part to the class of '33. Under her leadership, we have won basketball banners. In hockey, too, she's splendid. Such a loyal person! What she does, she does well.

Virginia Powers Twyman, A.B.

Kinston, N. C.

Z.

1929-'30—Glee Club; Delegate to Conference.

1931-'32—Vice-President F. M. C. A.; Member Student Council; Glee Club; Assistant Business Manager of Pine and Thistle; F. M. C. A. Representative Annual Staff

"There was a distance in her look that made us look again."

And how the rest of us do wonder what unseen things she is seeing. Darling "Chatty," may you never lose your funny, wistful little ways, even when you go to New York to study—tell them that sophistication doesn't become you.

Louise Von Canon, A.B.

Banner Elk, N. C.

E. X.

1929-'30—Basketball.
1930-'31—Hockey.
1931-'32—Hockey.
1932-'33—Fire Squad; Secretary William Bartram Scientific Society.

"She liked what'ere she looked on and her looks went everywhere."

When one thinks of Louise, one immediately thinks of gayety and laughter. Her cheerful disposition has made her one of the most lovable girls in the school. Louise, we see nothing but success for you. '33 wishes you Best O' Luck.

Marjorie Neville Weatherly, B.M.

Knoxville, Tenn.

Z.

1932-'33—President of Zetesian Society; Secretary of Conservatory; Glee Club; College Organist; Student Council; Senior Scribbler.

How we love to hear Margie's slim fingers pour forth her soul on the organ. She's different but that's why we all love her. And she is truly "Queen of the May."

Maysie Evelyn Willis, A.B.

Chadbourn, N. C.

Z.

"The world stands out on either side
No wider than the heart is wide."

But what a big world Maysie has, for her heart is enormous. She's kind to all and is ready to do her share at all times. She's an essential cog in the wheel of '33.

Alice Neel Wilson, A.B.

"Quips and cranks and wanton wiles,
Nods and becks and wreathed smiles."

If you want to forget your troubles just go down to Vardell 1 and talk to Alice Neel for about five minutes. With her merry giggle and optimistic view of life, she will soon make you forget you ever had a trouble. Some second grade will be lucky to have her for a teacher—and some day the heathen will be lucky too!

"Her heartstrings are a lute."

If like Laura, we were to build a temple to friendship, it would be the image of Elizabeth that we would place on the shrine. To her we have turned with our problems; with her we have shared our fun and happiness. Always the strings of her heart were tuned in sympathy with us. Wherever your future work shall lead you, Liz, you may know that the love and good wishes of thirty-three follow you.

Hockey

SENIOR

Scores

Senior	8	Sophomore	3
Senior	18	Freshman	1

In spite of practice house and practice teaching, the Seniors turned out well for hockey. They did good work and their outstanding plays were made between the left wing and left inside—Herring and Wilson. Some claim that the luck of the team disappeared with the Red Rooster!

Hockey

JUNIOR

Scores

Junior	17	Freshman	0
Junior	4	Senior	1

The Junior team had a good peppy season under the leadership of the manager—Ruth Faires. Three well played games brought them the Championship, and glory to the Blue and Gray. "Ruthie" simply held the team together, and everybody played their hardest when she was on the field. Let's keep it up, Bulldogs, and work hard next year.

Basketball

SENIOR

The Seniors, who have held the championship since they were freshmen, are working hard again this year. They have had practically the same team all the time, and we are looking forward to the games with great eagerness. It is the last time we will meet on the field, team, so do your best!

Basketball

JUNIOR

The Juniors haven't won the championship, but they surely put up a good fight, and play a good game—clean, honest, and quick work. We gave them a scare last year, so come on, team, let's do our best now.

Basketball

SOPHOMORE

Well, Sophomores, you are doing good work; keep it up—and you will have to do it if you are going to follow the pace that your "Big Sisters" have set.

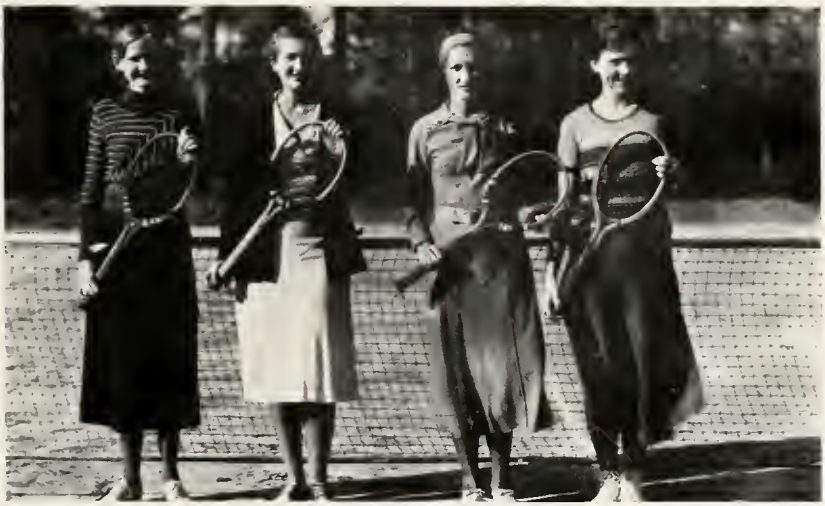
Basketball

FRESHMAN

We haven't seen you play in an official game yet, but if you are as plucky and as good sports as you were in hockey, you will surely make a name for yourselves—although you have really already made it.

Archery

In spite of being our newest sport, Archery is one of the most popular. The Archery Club is lively and wide awake—tournaments, contests, trips to Pinehurst, and having big people here are only a few of the things they put on. We are interested in its development, and from the girls on the range each day we are confident that we are correct in saying that archery is in the first ranks of popularity.



Tennis

There has been unusual interest in tennis this year. We started off in the fall with lots of pep, and an added feature, the beginners class. There is to be a beginners tournament early in the spring, and a loving cup is to be awarded to the champion. Here's your chance beginners.

Of course we will also have the big tournament and we are anticipating some good games—single-doubles.

BUILDERS
DREAMS
VISIONS created by the imagination precede the achievement of any really great accomplishment. The ability to weave the threads of imagination into the finished fabric is equally important.
It has been the privilege of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY to cooperate with the White Heather staff in creating their vision into material form.
Such coöperation is one of the "visions" which precede the building of a successful business, and is a part of the working policy of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY.
To those Staffs desiring complete cooperation, we offer unexcelled service.
You, too, may be proud of your annual.
